

This map illustrates the Houston area and its surrounding regions, including parts of Texas, Louisiana, and Mexico. Major highways are shown with route numbers, and cities are labeled. The map also depicts geographical features such as Lake Livingston, Lake Conroe, and the Gulf of Mexico. A legend in the bottom right corner identifies symbols for airports, deep water ports, and shallow draft ports. A scale bar indicates distances in miles, and a compass rose shows the orientation. An inset map in the bottom left corner provides a broader geographical context within the United States.
